

Northern Ireland Legal Quarterly

Volume 68 Number 3

Autumn 2017

EDITOR

PROFESSOR SALLY WHEELER

Queen's University
Belfast

School of Law

Contents

Special issue: The Pop-Up Museum of Legal Objects

Guest Editor: Amanda Perry-Kessaris

|                                                                                                                                                                                       |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Pop-Up Museum of Legal Objects project:an experiment in ‘socio-legal design’                                                                                          |     |
| Amanda Perry-Kessaris .....                                                                                                                                                    | 225 |
| Carte de visite of ‘The Lord Chief Justice of England’ (Sir AlexanderJames Edmund Cockburn, 12th Baronet) by London Stereoscopic andPhotographic Company, circa 1873 |     |
| Leslie Moran .....                                                                                                                                                             | 245 |
| All under one umbrella? The Family Guide to National Insurance 1948                                                                                                            |     |
| Jackie Gulland .....                                                                                                                                                           | 259 |
| Legal object commentary: anti-slavery medallion                                                                                                                                |     |
| Owain Johnstone .....                                                                                                                                                          | 271 |
| The Gweagal shield                                                                                                                                                             |     |
| Sarah Keenan .....                                                                                                                                                             | 283 |
| Encountering settler colonialism through legal objects: a painted drumand handwritten treaty from Manitoulin Island                                                       |     |
| Ruth Buchanan and Jeffery Hewitt .....                                                                                                                                         | 291 |
| Janus-headed intaglio                                                                                                                                                          |     |
| Steve Cranford .....                                                                                                                                                           | 305 |
| Grotius’ book chest, international law and material culture                                                                                                                    |     |
| Valentina Vadi .....                                                                                                                                                           | 371 |
| The holy thorn reliquary and cultural heritage                                                                                                                                 |     |
| Sophie Vigneron .....                                                                                                                                                          | 329 |
| Privacy and the mashrabiya screen: Knowledge is Sweeter than Honey                                                                                                      |     |
| Lisa Dickson .....                                                                                                                                                             | 341 |
| United Enemies                                                                                                                                                                 |     |
| Kelly Stathopoulou .....                                                                                                                                                       | 353 |

Self-sacrificing mothers as revered deities of social policy initiatives:
reflections on the Huastec mother goddess and conditional cash transfer programmes

Melisa Handl ..... 365

On the ‘Horniman walrus’

Matthew Nicholson ..... 379

When is a Haida sphinx: thinking about law with things

Genevieve Renard Painter ..... 391

Probabilistic reasoning and the rhetorical reconstruction of DNA profiling evidence

Karen Richmond ..... 403