

Contents

Abortion by telemedicine in Northern Ireland: patient and professional rights across borders
Tamara Hervey and Sally Sheldon	1
You can't judge a book by its cover: evolving professional responsibilities, liabilities and 'judgecraft' when a party has Asperger's Syndrome
Penny Cooper and Clare Allely	35
Copyright and the right to the city
Dr Marta Ijadica	59
LEGISLATION, TRENDS AND CASES
The role of Northern Ireland legislation in the protection of the Human Rights Act
Maggie Burlington	81
'Harry Potter language?' The Plain Language Movement and the case against abandoning 'legalese'
Michael Stephenson	85
R (on the Application of Johnson) (Appellant) v Secretary of State for the Home Department (Respondent) [2016] UKSC 56
Alan Desmond	91
Maistrellis v Minister for Justice [2015] IRLR 944 CJEU
Jamie Atkinson	95